

Newsletter - Summer 2021

We hope you find something of interest in this newsletter. Please feel free to forward it on to colleagues ... and do get in touch with us if you want to ask anything about the contents.

Reverting to face-to-face training

As we all take cautious steps back to "normality" we wanted to let you know that we are prepared to revert to face-to-face training whenever you are. If you want to talk to us about existing bookings, or brand new ones, then we'd be very happy to hear from you. Of course there may be logistical difficulties with existing bookings, but we'll do our very best to accommodate your wishes. And if you prefer to continue with virtual training, then of course that's fine with us too!
